Yes! I would like to be a part of sharing this amazing story! The plan for a monumental bronze sculpture featuring three women of early Macon County is very inspirational! The design depicting Na-Ka Rebecca Morris (Cherokee), Salley (enslaved woman) and Timoxena Siler Sloan (settler woman) tells the story of shared cultures, struggles and persistence.

- Check enclosed payable to Folk Heritage Association of Macon County (earmarked for WHT sculpture)
- Call 828-524-6564 if you wish to donate via another method.
